HOME RULE PROSPECTS.

THE CABINET DECIDING TO MODIFY THE BILL.

& BIG MEETING CALLED FOR THURSDAY - MR GLADSTONE VISITS THE QUEEN - SHARP WORDS BETWEEN TREVELYAN

AND PARNELL. LONDON, May 25 .- The upshot of to-day's meeting of the Cabinet is virtually a move in the direction of a concession to the disaffected Liberals. Several of the Ministers urged that clause 24 of the Home Rule bill be eliminated. After a long discussion it was decided to leave the matter in Gladstone's hands to deal with as think fit. His mind was apparently made up, for early in the evening QUINN, GRAND MASTER JOSEPH, badly bri Government whips were instructed to summon the rank and file of the Liberal party to a general meeting on Thursday, when modifications of the Home Rule bill will be announced in order to preserve the Government from defeat on the second reading. Mr. Moriey at the Cabinet council was alone in continuing to oppose the clision of clause 24 from the Home bill, and will not attend the Liberal conference. The Ministers are conndent that with the accession of thirty-five Radical dissidents and "doubtfuls" they will have a majority of 40. The bill will be dropped after the second reading. It is probable that Parliament will be dissolved in the autumn. If the Gladstone Government be returned the winter session will be devoted exclusively to the discussion of the Home Rule bill.

Mr. Gladstone went to Windsor to-day in obedience to a summons from the Queen, and conveyed to her the opinion of himself and colleagues with reference to the Home-Rule bill and the proposed dissolution of Parliament. The Queen intimated that she was willing to meet the wishes of the Ministers. There was considerable excitement in the House of Commons this afternoon in consequence of a report that Mr. Gladstone has tendered his resignation of the Government to the

The Liberal Unionists, in spite of their new and untried committee, are sanguine of suc-cess in the coming elections. They are receiving financial support daily. Baron Roths-child has sent them £500, and it is believed they have received several larger sums. They are widely sirculating auti-Home Rule literature.

The Government does not promise to reconstruct the Home Rule bill, but proposes to withdraw it after the second reading and to bring it up for the committee stage later, when objec-tions will be dealt with openmindedity. The Home Rule debate was resumed in the House of Commons to-night. Viscount Lymington (Liberal) said the bill was a chaotic measure. Ireland required social remedies. The agrarian question was at the root of the the failure of recent Irish remedial legislation was that it came too late. Another reason was that the benefits offered were not what the Irish wanted, but what Parliament thought they ought to have. Alluding to Mr. Chamberlain's views, the Attorney-General said the bill would really further and not retard federati The protests about Ulster were mainly bunkum and bluster. The religious question was merely a begus bugbear, intended to frighten the Ulsterites; whose slarn was without foundation. The Government, he said sought to substitute a real for an unreal union

Mr. Trevelyan asked what the House would have members do whose opinions defered from those of their construents. [Cries of "Resign."] They could hardly resign an every such occasion, replied the speaker. As for himself, he continued, he would leave his constituents to follow their own course. He was unable to support the bill. He failed to agree with the Attorney-General that those who favored granting autonomy to breland should vote without inquiring into the nature of the proposed autonomy, Mr. Trevelyan reminded the House that America when asked to pay a tribute of £100,000 had hosen separation. What would the colonies have done if they had been saked to pay a tribute such as that demanded of Ireland! Grattan had indignantly refused to pay to England the fluencial surpurs of Ireland. The speaker then quoted an alleged remark if Mr. Parnell to the effect that he would not rest until he hast into the effect that he would not rest until he last into the effect that he would not rest until he last into the effect that he would not rest until he last into the effect.

Nr. Farnell retorted that Mr. Trevelyan had a given the date and fille of the oper from which he quoted. He (Parnell) possessed triating reports of his Cinchanati species, which nevel that he had not used such words.

Mr. Freveryan said that he fully accepted Mr. Parnell's could, and added that the date was February 23, 1880, a tree paper was The Irich World.

Proceeding with his spacen, Mr. Trevelyan said that he chief objection to the Lant Parenase bill was that the chief objection to the Lant Parenase bill was that the chief objection to the country. He never would not after the present fan he meet the objections of some of its most faithful followers. Cries of "Oh!" and cheers.

Mr. Bready to intel Mr. Trevelyan with having no alternative proposals. He never Mr. Brevelyan of opening capies of the trish World directed to Farnellites.

Mr. Trevelyan said that the imputation was a serious one. He declared that he had never opened others letters in his life.

Mr. Healy said he only remarked that while Mr. Trevel at was in office Parnellites did not set their papers of certy, others and. If Mr. Trevelyan did not "barke" himself. It has deputy? Mr. Healy continued: "If all deferent barry winpsiers is! Better grant the boon recore only than refuse and plungs the matter, which of the different barry winpsiers is! Better grant the boon recore only than refuse and plungs the matter into the sentime cameron prepared for h."

Mr. tamescrian will probably attend the Liberal meeting. The Scots believes that Mr. Guatstone's explanation and assurances will result in satisfying the balk of the Liberals, thus ensuring a majority for the Home Rule bill. "Mr. Trevelyan," says The News, "wishes the Land bill to be sacrifised. We are made to regard that bill as in existence at all."

FIGHT BETWEEN SOLDIERS AND POLICE. LONDON, May 25 .- Some members of the Inniskilling Fusiliers, stationed at Aldershot, attended a Conservative meeting to-day at which some tended a Conservative heeting to-day at which some of the orators savagely denounced Home Rule and described the Irish people as being unfit for self-government. The Fusiliers hecame entaged at the speakers and attacked them and their supporters. The police were called in to protect the speakers, and a light ensued between them and the Irish solmers. The contrains of the Fusiliers went to their assistance and the police were body whipped and ariven away. They seemed relative members, however, and returning suppressed the rioting and arrested five soldiers.

MOB RULE IN TORONTO. OVER THIRTY STREET CARS WRECKED AND MANY PERSONS HURT,

TORONTO, May 25 .- For over three hours tonight this city was under mob rule. Word was received by the Knights of Labor that omnibuses from Kingston for the use of the street railroad strikers would arrive here between 6 and 7 p. m. and a large crowd went to meet them, accompanied by a brass band. On their arrival the omnibuses were driven slowly through the principal streets, the crowd gradually increasing in number until nearly 2,000 person were following in procession. Every street-car met on the route was attacked with bricks and stones. Passengers, drivers and conductors were injured, and the wildest uproar was kept up, the police being powerless to do anything. Between thirty and forty street-cars were wrecked in this way, and are now lying in the company's sheds. Such a scene has seldom, if ever, been witnessed in Toronto. Fortunately, so injured. Had it not been that the Knights of Labor broke up the procession, much more serious results

A MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL INDICTED. Amsterdam, May 25 (Special), -Excitement Councilmen of that year: John J. Turner, George Engle John M. Peckham, E. T. Ruison, Michael Donian, David Manny, R. F. Owen and Charles Wyburn. The cause of the indictment is that the Mayor and Common Council which prohibits that body from expending more than $10,000 or incurring any liability beyond that amount sto,000 or incurring any fiability beyond that amount in any one year. The last Common Council overran this stipmation $6,000. It was generally thought that no bill would be found against the boay for this charge, necause $\tilde{\pi}$ is generally admitted that the money was necessary and was expended judiciously. The fact of the materiment, therefore, makes some people believe that something unbeard of has been found against the officials. It is believed the indicted persons will be brought before the court on Wednesday and probably admitted to ball. Many believe the whole affair is the result of state.

MARRIED AGAIN ON THEIR WEDDING TOUR. Synacuse, May 25 (Special).-Isaac Boehm, of New-York, and Mrs. Catharine Seligman, of Petersburg, Va., were married here to-day by Justice Belknap. Mr. Boohm explained that they were married in New-York on Sanday by the Rev. D. Hoexter, of a Jewish synagogue, who is a brother-in-law of his. The cere-mony was performed at the home of his sister. No. 413 West Fifty-first-st. When some of the bride's friends learned that the Rev. Mr. Hoexter was a relative of Mr. Boshm's they raised the point that the marriage might not be legal. The revelations of yesterday are the only topics of Circuit Altorney Clover and his assistant, McDonaid. Nearly every member of the bar denounces the procuring of contessions as unprofessional and worse, and all agree that the State had a complete and remarkable case of circumstantial cridence before putting Detective McCullourb on the stant. Belief in Maxwell's guilt is strong, but the action of the State's representatives has caused a reaction in public sentiment. Mr. Fauntierry, in opening for the defence to-morrow, will say that he will prove that Maxwell is an irresponsible crank, additeted to chloroform, morphine and other strong drues, and when under their influences imagined he was a doctor or a general. He accordingly killed Prelier with chloroform, and in a fear-crazed condition robbed the remains and put them in his trank. Mr. Strasser, of the Cigarmakers' Union, was the most energetic complainant. He gave a history of the cigarmakers' troubles in New York, and presented an and Recording Secretary of Local Assembly No. 2,708, of Albany, complaining that many manufacturers in that city had refused to make their shops union shops on the ground that the fight with the Kaights would break up eventually the International Union. That local assembly consists entirely of International cigarmakers and the appeal

ends as follows:

The above is an illustration of how the clashing of interests has retarded the onward march of organization in this city and the same may apply to every city in the country, which is evident proof that no one is so much pleased at the unsettled condition of affairs as the manufacturers, who are watching the situation with evident satisfaction. We trust you will see the importance of and will take such action as will prevent the classing of interests in the faire, to the end that all trades unions and Knights of Labor may journey on together to a brighter and better future.

The grievances were all considered carefully and the

The grievances were all considered carefully and the trades union men were presented a pian of settlement which was considered. No definite action was taken, but the Executive Board promised that they would present the matter to the General Assembly with proper recomsition to a satisfactory settlement of these troubles is expected to come from certain New-York delegates, through whom the trouble with the cigarmakers origiwill be taken up with New-York affairs. The delegates from the mixed district in New-York, who are alleged to be the "kickers," have kept quet as yet and have minded little with the yet and have minded little with the other delegates. They are quiet, determined men and are good fighters. They assert that they have been justified in all their actions, and when the proper time comes profess to be able to carry the General Assembly with them. One of the members of the Executive Boardsaid after the adjournment of the conference that while the trades unions had just cause of complaint receive proper attention, but should be redressed, he thought, however, that the violent attacks on the order able to go ahead with public business. The taugle is International Union, were ill-advised, and that Strasser, severely consured for putting into the hands of the commy of the order a weapon to be used to their disalof the order only such delegates as were sent to the last General Assembly are entitled to be present now, since that time many new district assembles have been formed. It is probable that matters of vital importance to some of them will be discussed and about their delegates from new districts have handed in their credentials. Hery chim that under the call they are cautical to representation. It is said that a determined fight was unde before the Credentials Committee against the admission of these men. Before the chose of the recess Elwin Norton, a steel manufacturer of Chicago, read a long paper on "fine Organization of Manufacturers." He also read a plan for the gradinal reduction of the hours of labor without disarranging trade too much. He presented a drait of a circular which he proposed to send to the leading manufacturers of the country, calling for a meeting to consider the singlest. At the close of Mr. Norton's address the meeting was called to order and, pending the return of the Committee on Credentials, the Executive Board laid before the Assembly the bird of grey-ances of the trades unload and a motion was made to appoint a committee of five to confer with the trades unlonists and to have full power to act for future consideration. The Credentials Committee reported in favor of admitting those originates who were unasies through any cause to be present, in the matter of the asimission of the delegates from the new assembles, it was decoded to defer instead of the committee until to-morrow. At 7:30 the Assembly adjourned to meet again at 9 s. m. to-morrow, when the matter of the trades unions will be taken up awam. A conference of those designates who are favorable to the trades unions was held to-night to leckle what course of action to pursue in the conflict, and the other side also took counsel of each other.

The statement is made that a novel proposition will be laid before the General Assembly shortly. It is to bring about amicable relations between labor and capital by forming local and district assembles composed entirely of manufacturers and other employers. The proposition is so entirely novel that the leaders of the Knights will not express an ontinuo on the subject until they have had more time to consider it. It is understood that the proposition has been under discussion by the Executive Board and will be laid before the General Assembly for their action.

THE THIRD AVENUE STRIKE. PLANNING DESPERATE MEASURES.

AN ASSAULT ON TWO MEN NOW AT WORK-CHANGES

IN THE EXECUTIVE BOARD. Affairs with the striking car-drivers seem to be in a decidedly mixed and uncertain con-dition, and from all outward appearances some desperate step by which the strikers hope the Third Avenue Company will be compelled to yield to their demands is being arranged. That they lost their best friend when the resignation of Joseph O'Donnell, ex-chairman of the Executive Board of the ceded, and when, after several weeks' trial, Captain that nothing but desperate measures are intended. For some time it has been runnored that Captain Collain was in possession of an agreement signed by the presidents of all the city radroads by which all the companies were to combine and fight any strike that might occur. This story was emphatically declared to be false by the members of the Executive Board and by Captain Collina last night. At the head-quarters of the strikers there was the usual gathering of drivers and conductors. Secretary Mulford gave out the following statement:

THE FISHERY TROUBLES.

CAPTAIN ELLIS IN A QUANDARY.

THE STORY OF CAPTAIN DOUGHTY-THE CANADIAS FLEET READY FOR SEA. [BY THEEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

PORTLAND, Me., May 25 .- Captain Ellis, of the Canadian schooner Sisters, has finished discharging his cargo of fresh fish for F. L. Ciement & Co., and now desires to return home. This morning he made some inources at the Custom House regarding the proper course he must either pay the fine imposed or give a proper bond for satisfying the claim before he would be allowed to leave the harbor, he went to the telegraph office and sent a dispatch to the consignees asking for instruction in the matter. No answer has yet been received, and in fact it is difficult to see what can readily be done unless he abandons the vessel. Good judges do not estimate the value of the little schooner at enough to eatisfy the fine, and as she is neither owned by the captain nor by W. A. Kilrain, who chartered her, it looks as though there will be a vexations delay unless the Secretary of the Treasury promptly remits the fine. In any case Crowell Brothers, the owners of the vessel, can suffer no loss. It is probable that the British Consut until the matter is adjusted.

This morning the people of Portland had an illustra tration of how the present fish laws work in favor of Cauadian fishermen. Under the provision that fresh fish are admitted free of duty Captain Haley, of the Canadian schooner Henrietta, has brought to A. & L. Jackson & Co. a cargo such shipments will have a further tendency to demor-House if he had any manifest he frankly replied that he treated he at once wrote out two extra manifests to be sure and have no trouble in that respect. "Tnat's so," he replied. "Your present Secretary of State don't dare to go out of doors. The people of Yar-mouth will go wild when they hear what has been done to the Sisters, but we are not afraid of your Govern-

The choice of William D. Putnam as one of the Government attorneys in the trial of the case before the Canadian Court gives great satisfaction here, and under his care the owners of the Ella M. Doughty feel confident of obtaining proper justice. To-morrow the Port-land Board of Trade will hold a speaks meeting to take action on the seizures of American fishermen by the Canadian Government. Resolutions condemning such seizures and urging more prompt action by the authorities at Washington wal be adopted.

Mr. Putnam says he is ready to start for the Provinces at a moment's notice. He was asked to say if he could indicate his line of defence. He replied; "No; what instructions I have received or may receive from the Department will be kept secret. It would be improper for me to speak of my line of defence at this time." "That, too, I must decline to answer. I am not at liberty to speak in regard to the cases in question, beyond saying that I have been engaged by the Government.'

The Conrad, which will be eady in a few days, will probably watch the coasts of Lunenburg, Shelburne, and Yarmouth. Fundy will doubtiess be guarded by the flagship Lausdowne and the cruisers Terror and General Lytton. Many seizures are looked for within the next three weeks, as this is the season during which Americans most need bait from Nova Scotta. Orders were sent to Digby to-day for the sale of the remaining part of the fish on the David J. Adams and warrents were issued from the Admiralty Court for the confiscation of the Elia M. Doughty.

Consul-General Phelan returned from Englishtown today by stage-coach and steamer, bringing with him Captain Doughty and the crew of seized fisherman Ella M. Doughty. Captain Doughty makes the following
